Artist/curator Jesse Amado describes the six members of "Dreamers and Realists" as "artists who approach reality as dreamers," but is quick to point out that, "they are dreamers and realists, not either/or." Thus, the work in this group show (which unites Amado with Andrés Ferrandis, Cisco Jiménez, Nicole Franchy, Kaela Puente and Alejandro Augustine Padilla) falls somewhere in the realm of magical realism, wherein skepticism is withheld and all that can be observed exists on one endless plane. Exploring questions of relativity, the exhibition unveiling features a special performance by Daniela Riojas.
