

Six Fotoseptiembre USA shows you have to see

By Elda Silva Updated 12:29 pm, Wednesday, August 31, 2016

The 22nd installment of Fotoseptiembre USA, a monthlong photography festival, features more than 30 events. Here is a list of highlights to put in your viewfinder. Check out the full schedule of events and web galleries curated by festival founder and director Michael Mehl at fotoseptiembreusa.com.

- "This is What I Know": Group exhibition curated by husband-and-wife duo Kemp Davis and Melanie Rush Davis features work by more than a dozen photographers, including Jesse Acosta, Damian Borges, Tim Cadena, Danielle Charles and Josh Jordan. Through Oct. 3. Digital Pro Lab, 10103 San Pedro Ave., 210-377-3686, digitalprolab.com.

- "Esprit De Corps": Behind the scenes photographs of high school and college marching bands by Lincoln, Nebraska-based photographer Walker Pickering.

•"Borderland": A solo exhibit of stone sculpture, paintings and photographic works by Sabine Senft investigating the harsh realities Mexican immigrants face crossing the border into the United States. Reception 6:30-9 p.m. Thursday; through Oct. 9, Cinnabar, 1420 S. Alamo St., Blue Star Arts Compex, 210-557-6073, cinnabarart.com.

•"Kent Rush: 46 Years of Photography": A retrospective of works by the photographer, starting with images from the '70s. Reception 6-9 p.m. Saturday; through Oct. 28, REM Gallery, 219 E. Park Ave., 210-224-1227, remgallery.com.

•"Graciela Iturbide: A Lens to See": An exhibit of works by the renowned Mexican photographer organized with support from the Wittliff Collections-Texas State University. Reception 6-8 p.m. Sept. 8, through Oct. 15, Ruiz-Healy Art, 201-A E. Olmos Drive, 210-804-2219, ruizhealyart.com.

•"Califas Lens, San Anto Heart: Outside Looking In": An exhibit of portraits taken by Los Angeles native Arlene Mejorado at the Poteet Flea Market; curated by Ladybase Gallery and R.L. Rodriguez. Reception 6:30 p.m. Sept. 9, through Sept. 24 by appointment, Rspace, 110 E. Lachapelle St., 210-214-1608, ladybasegallery@gmail.com.

Read more about Arlene Mejorado's exhibit at our subscriber site, ExpressNews.com.

lsilva@express-news.net